— A personalised gazette,
designed for your loved one

An automatically formatted, chronologically ordered layout. A4 format with big photos and a large font size for optimal visibility.

A gazette created for and by your family, with a mosaic of your photos on the cover.

A reminder on the back cover of everyone's upcoming birthdays. You can add birthdays for family members that do not have a Famileo account (young children, partners, etc.).

Personalise the name of your gazette with your loved one's nickname.

Create stunning photo collages and share all your big and little moments.

Post your favourite portrait photos and photo collages as a full page.

And also ☀

A letter slipped in with the first gazette to explain to your loved one this beautiful gift.

A reminder email 3 days before the closing of the gazette.

A family kitty allowing each members of the family to participate at the subscription once registered.

A digital version of the gazette for you, that you can consult and download every Monday morning.

They are already 1,8 million children and grandchildren to meet on Famileo to share family news and announcement.
